62. The conduct set forth in subsections 1 to 61, inclusive, which violated a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

Sec. 6. In determining whether to grant parole to a prisoner, the Board will apply the severity level of the crime for which parole is being considered as assigned pursuant to section

7 of this regulation and the risk level assigned to the prisoner pursuant to section 8 of this regulation to establish an initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole. The initial assessment will correspond to the following table:

Severity Level	Risk Level
	High	Moderate	Low
Highest	Deny parole	Consider factors set forth in section 9 of this regulation	Consider factors set forth in section 9 of this regulation
High	Deny parole	Consider factors set forth in section 9 of this regulation	Grant parole at first or second meeting to consider prisoner for parole
Moderate	Deny parole	Grant parole at first or second meeting to consider prisoner for parole	Grant parole at initial parole eligibility
Low Moderate	Consider factors set forth in section 9 of this regulation	Grant parole at first or second meeting to consider prisoner for parole	Grant parole at initial parole eligibility

Low	Consider factors set forth in section 9 of this regulation	Grant parole at initial parole eligibility	Grant parole at initial parole eligibility

Sec. 7. 1. The Board will assign to each crime for which parole is being considered a severity level of “highest,” “high,” “moderate,” “low moderate” or “low.” The severity level will be the same as the severity level assigned to the crime by the Department of Corrections for the purpose of classifying offenders pursuant to NRS 209.341.

2. The Board will apply the severity level of the crime for which parole is being considered to establish an initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole in the manner set forth in section 6 of this regulation.

Sec. 8. 1. The Board will assign to each prisoner who is being considered for parole a risk level of “high,” “moderate” or “low” according to the level of risk that the prisoner will commit a felony if released on parole.

2. To establish the risk level, the Board will conduct an objective risk assessment which includes, without limitation, consideration of:

- (a) The current age of the prisoner;*
- (b) The age of the prisoner when he was first arrested in connection with the commission of a crime;*
- (c) Any previous failure by the prisoner to complete probation or parole;*
- (d) The employment history of the prisoner;*

- (e) Whether the prisoner has ever been convicted of a property offense;*
 - (f) Whether the prisoner has a history of drug or alcohol abuse;*
 - (g) The gender of the prisoner;*
 - (h) Whether the prisoner is a member of a criminal gang;*
 - (i) Whether the prisoner has earned any diploma or degree from an educational institution;*
 - (j) Whether the prisoner has completed a vocational, educational or treatment program during his incarceration;*
 - (k) The number of times disciplinary action has been taken against the prisoner during the immediately preceding 12 months and the nature and circumstances of the conduct for which disciplinary action was taken; and*
 - (l) The level of security restrictions imposed on the prisoner by the Department of Corrections pursuant to NRS 209.341 or 209.351.*
- 3. If a prisoner has ever been convicted of a sexual offense and has been evaluated using a currently accepted standard of assessment to determine the risk that the prisoner will commit another sexual offense if released on parole, the Board will assign a risk level to the prisoner which is the higher of the risk level assigned pursuant to this section and the risk level determined by such an evaluation.*
- 4. The Board will apply the risk level assigned to a prisoner who is being considered for parole to establish an initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole in the manner set forth in section 6 of this regulation.*

5. As used in this section, “sexual offense” means an offense listed in subsection 3 of NRS 176.133 or an offense committed in another jurisdiction that, if committed in this State, would be an offense listed in subsection 3 of NRS 176.133.

Sec. 9. 1. After establishing an initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole pursuant to section 6 of this regulation, the Board may consider additional aggravating and mitigating factors to determine whether to grant parole to a prisoner.

2. The aggravating factors which the Board may consider in determining whether to grant parole to a prisoner include, without limitation:

(a) Whether the nature of the crime committed by the prisoner was severe, extreme or abnormal;

(b) Whether the prisoner has previously been convicted of a crime;

(c) The number of occasions on which the prisoner has been incarcerated;

(d) Any previous failures by the prisoner to complete probation or parole;

(e) Whether the prisoner has committed a crime while incarcerated, during any period of release from confinement on bail, during any period of escape from an institution or facility or while on probation or parole;

(f) The extent to which the prisoner attempted to elude capture during or following the commission of a crime;

(g) The extent of the injury or loss suffered by the victim of the crime for which parole is being considered;

(h) Whether the prisoner has engaged in repetitive criminal conduct;

(i) Whether the prisoner has engaged in disruptive behavior while incarcerated;

(j) Whether the Department of Corrections has ever ordered the prisoner to be confined in disciplinary segregation;

(k) Whether the prisoner has committed increasingly serious crimes;

(l) Whether the prisoner has a history of failing to comply with the orders of a mental health professional for the treatment of a mental illness, including, without limitation, failing to comply with prescriptions for medication to treat a mental illness;

(m) Whether the prisoner demonstrates that he does not understand the nature of any diagnosed mental illness and whether that lack of understanding may contribute to future criminal behavior;

(n) Whether, in committing the crime for which parole is being considered, the prisoner targeted a child under the age of 18 years or a person who is vulnerable because of his age or disability;

(o) Whether the prisoner has a history of possessing or using a weapon during the commission of a crime; and

(p) Any other factor which indicates an increased risk that the release of the prisoner on parole would be dangerous to society or the prisoner.

3. The mitigating factors which the Board may consider to determine whether to grant parole to a prisoner include, without limitation:

(a) Whether the prisoner has participated in programs which address the behaviors of the prisoner which led to the commission of the crime for which parole is being considered;

(b) Whether the prisoner has no prior history, or a minimal history, of criminal convictions;

(c) Whether the prisoner has not had any infractions of the rules of the institution or facility in which he has been incarcerated during the most recent 2 years if the lack of infractions is not a result of the confinement of the prisoner in disciplinary segregation;

(d) Whether the prisoner has adjusted positively to a program for reentry of offenders and parolees into the community established by the Director of the Department of Corrections pursuant to NRS 209.4887 or a program of work release established by the Department of Corrections pursuant to NRS 213.300;

(e) Whether the prisoner had less involvement in the commission of the crime for which parole is being considered than other persons who participated in the commission of the crime;

(f) Whether the prisoner previously completed probation or parole successfully, other than probation imposed and supervised by a court;

(g) Whether the prisoner has support available to him in the community or from his family;

(h) Whether a stable release plan exists for the prisoner;

(i) Whether the release of the prisoner is not a significant risk to society because the prisoner will be paroled to another jurisdiction for prosecution or deportation;

(j) Whether the presentence investigation indicates that the crime for which parole is being considered was situational and that the prisoner did not intend to cause harm;

(k) Whether the prisoner has demonstrated remorse for the crime for which parole is being considered;

(l) Whether the prisoner has consistently managed a mental illness which may contribute to criminal behavior in the manner recommended by mental health professionals; and

(m) Any other factor which indicates that the release of the prisoner on parole would benefit, or would not be dangerous to, society or the prisoner.

Sec. 10. 1. If the Board denies parole, the Board will not consider a request for the Board to reassess the severity level of the crime for which parole was denied unless:

(a) The Department of Corrections determines that the severity level assigned to the crime pursuant to section 7 of this regulation should have been lower and advises the Board, in writing, of its determination; and

(b) The prisoner mails a request to the State Board of Parole Commissioners, 1677 Old Hot Springs Road, Suite A, Carson City, Nevada 89706, not later than 45 days after the meeting at which the Board considered whether to grant parole.

2. If the Board receives a request from a prisoner for the Board to reassess the severity level of a crime and the Department of Corrections has advised the Board that the severity level assigned to the crime should have been lower, the Executive Secretary of the Board or an employee of the Board designated by the Board must apply the lower severity level to establish a new initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole in the manner set forth in section 6 of this regulation.

3. If the new initial assessment established pursuant to subsection 2 is more favorable to the prisoner than the initial assessment established before the reassessment of the severity level, the Board will, as soon as practicable, schedule a meeting to reconsider whether to grant parole to the prisoner.

Sec. 11. 1. A prisoner who wishes to request that the Board reassess the risk level assigned to the prisoner pursuant to section 8 of this regulation must:

(a) Mail a request for the Board to reassess the risk level to the State Board of Parole Commissioners, 1677 Old Hot Springs Road, Suite A, Carson City, Nevada 89706, not later than 45 days after the meeting at which the Board considered whether to grant parole; and

(b) Base the request on circumstances which existed at the time that the Board assigned the risk level.

2. If a prisoner does not mail a request in compliance with subsection 1 or bases the request on a change of circumstances since the Board assigned the risk level, the Board will not consider the request.

3. As soon as practicable after receiving a request for the Board to reassess the risk level assigned to a prisoner, the Executive Secretary of the Board or an employee of the Board designated by the Board shall determine whether the Board, in assigning the risk level, did not consider a factor set forth in section 8 of this regulation or did not give such a factor the appropriate weight. If such a determination is made, the Executive Secretary or the employee designated by the Board must reassess the risk level of the prisoner by considering only the facts which existed at the time of the original assignment.

4. If, after reassessing the risk level assigned to a prisoner, it is determined that the risk level is the same or higher than the previously assigned risk level, the Executive Secretary of the Board or the employee designated by the Board must affirm the denial of parole. If, after reassessing the risk level assigned to a prisoner, the risk level is lower than the previously assigned risk level, the Executive Secretary or the employee designated by the Board must apply the lower risk level to establish a new initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole in the manner set forth in section 6 of this regulation.

5. If the new initial assessment established pursuant to subsection 3 is more favorable to the prisoner than the initial assessment established before the reassessment of the risk level, the Board will, as soon as practicable, schedule a meeting to reconsider whether to grant parole to the prisoner.

Sec. 12. 1. A prisoner who wishes to request that the Board reconsider a denial of parole, other than a request pursuant to section 10 or 11 of this regulation, must:

(a) Mail the request to the State Board of Parole Commissioners, 1677 Old Hot Springs Road, Suite A, Carson City, Nevada 89706, not later than 45 days after the meeting at which the Board considered whether to grant parole; and

(b) Submit with the request a statement from an employee of the Department of Corrections or the Division who supervises the prisoner and has knowledge of the prisoner and his case, or a direct supervisor of that employee, which includes, without limitation, an explanation of the reasons that the Board should reconsider the denial of the request.

2. If a prisoner submits a request for reconsideration that does not comply with the provisions of subsection 1, the Board will not consider the request.

Sec. 13. 1. A prisoner may not be released on mandatory parole pursuant to NRS 213.1215 unless the Board has approved the release and the Division has established a program for the prisoner's activities during his parole.

2. The Board will conduct a meeting to consider a prisoner for mandatory parole pursuant to NRS 213.1215 not sooner than 150 days before the date on which the prisoner must be released.

3. Before approving the mandatory parole of a prisoner, the Board will determine whether there is a reasonable probability that the prisoner will be a danger to public safety while on parole by considering:

(a) Whether the risk level assigned to the prisoner pursuant to section 8 of this regulation indicates that there is a high risk that prisoner will commit a felony if released on parole;

(b) If the prisoner has been convicted of an offense listed in subsection 5 of NRS 213.1214, whether the prisoner has been certified as not presenting a high risk to reoffend pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 of NRS 213.1214;

(c) Whether the prisoner has made any statements indicating that the prisoner will refuse to comply with the terms and conditions of parole;

(d) Whether the prisoner has made any threats to harm others;

(e) The number and nature of any prior convictions of the prisoner, including, without limitation, whether the prisoner has a history of conviction for violent crimes;

(f) Whether the prisoner has engaged in violent behavior while incarcerated;

(g) Whether the prisoner has been convicted of multiple felony offenses involving driving or being in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance;

(h) Whether the prisoner has previously failed to successfully complete probation or parole and whether that failure was the result of violent or criminal actions by the prisoner;

(i) Whether the criminal history of the prisoner indicates that the crimes committed by the prisoner have increased in severity over time;

(j) Whether the prisoner has demonstrated an attitude or behavior which indicates that the prisoner favors a criminal lifestyle, including, without limitation, whether the prisoner has been actively involved in a criminal gang, the planning of prison escapes or other criminal activity; and

(k) Any other factor which demonstrates a reasonable probability that the prisoner will be a danger to public safety while on parole.

4. If a panel to which the Board has delegated its authority pursuant to NRS 213.133 determines that it will recommend that the Board grant mandatory parole to a prisoner and that the prisoner has not been considered and is eligible for discretionary parole pursuant to NRS 213.1099, the panel may recommend that the Board grant discretionary parole to the prisoner rather than mandatory parole.

Sec. 14. 1. Unless a prisoner has waived his right to receive notice pursuant to subsection 3, the Board will provide to a prisoner notice of the meeting to consider whether to grant parole to the prisoner. The notice will consist of:

(a) Personal delivery of written notice to the prisoner not later than 5 working days before the meeting; or

(b) The mailing, by certified mail, of written notice to the institution or facility at which the prisoner is confined not later than 21 working days before the meeting.

2. Notice to a prisoner pursuant to subsection 1 will be deemed adequate if written notice was personally delivered to the prisoner and a copy of the written notice was returned to the Board and signed by:

(a) The prisoner and the employee of the Department of Corrections or the Department of Public Safety who witnessed the delivery of the written notice; or

(b) Two persons employed by the Department of Corrections or the Department of Public Safety who witnessed the prisoner refuse to accept the written notice.

3. A prisoner may waive, in writing, the rights granted to him pursuant to subsections 9 and 10 of NRS 213.130.

Sec. 15. 1. The recommendations which the Board may provide pursuant to NRS 213.130 to a prisoner to whom parole is denied to improve his possibility of receiving parole may include, without limitation, a recommendation that the prisoner:

(a) Not engage in misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action;

(b) Participate in a program that addresses the behavior of the prisoner which led to his incarceration;

(c) Participate in an educational, occupational or vocational program;

(d) Participate in a program which encourages the development of empathy for victims of crime;

(e) Avoid participation in, and association with, a criminal gang; or

(f) Take any other action, or refrain from any other action, which the Board deems appropriate.

2. Any recommendation provided to a prisoner pursuant to NRS 213.130 is not intended to create an expectation that the Board will grant parole to the prisoner if the prisoner follows the recommendations and does not create an interest in liberty or property when the Board considers the prisoner for parole at a subsequent hearing.

Sec. 16. 1. After the Board has granted parole to a prisoner but before the prisoner is released from prison, the Board may rescind the parole of the prisoner.

2. If the Department of Corrections or the Division becomes aware of information which provides grounds to rescind the parole of a prisoner and the prisoner is scheduled to be released on parole less than 2 working days after the Department or the Division becomes aware of the information, the Department or the Division may:

(a) Delay the release of the prisoner on parole for not more than 2 working days after the date on which the prisoner is scheduled to be released;

(b) Provide to any member of the Board written notification of the grounds to rescind parole and that the release of the prisoner has been delayed; and

(c) Request that a member of the Board order the further delay of the release of the prisoner.

3. If a member of the Board becomes aware of information which provides grounds to rescind the parole of a prisoner or receives written notification of grounds to rescind parole pursuant to subsection 2, the member may order the delay of the release of the prisoner to allow time for the Board to consider whether to rescind the parole of the prisoner.

4. If a member of the Board has received written notification of grounds to rescind parole pursuant to subsection 2 and does not order the delay of the release of the prisoner on parole within 2 working days after the date on which the prisoner is scheduled to be released on parole, the prisoner must be released.

5. If a member of the Board orders the delay of the release of a prisoner on parole pursuant to subsection 3, the Board will, as soon as practicable:

- (a) Schedule a meeting to consider whether to rescind the parole of the prisoner; or*
- (b) If a majority of the members of the Board state in writing that the parole of the prisoner should not be rescinded, authorize the release of the prisoner.*

Sec. 17. When authorized pursuant to NRS 213.133, the Board may delegate its authority to hear, consider and act upon the parole of a prisoner and on any issue before the Board to a panel consisting of:

- 1. Two or more members of the Board, two of whom constitute a quorum; or*
- 2. One member of the Board who is assisted by a case hearing representative chosen from the list of persons eligible to serve as case hearing representatives established and maintained by the Board pursuant to NRS 213.135.*

Sec. 18. NAC 213.500 is hereby amended to read as follows:

213.500 ~~{As used in NAC 213.500 to 213.560, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires,}~~ “Board” means the State Board of Parole Commissioners.

Sec. 19. NAC 213.560 is hereby amended to read as follows:

213.560 1. The standards contained in NAC ~~[213.510 to 213.550, inclusive, may]~~ 213.550 and sections 6 to 9, inclusive, of this regulation may be considered by the Board in determining whether to grant, deny, continue or revoke parole, but nothing contained in those sections shall be construed to restrict the authority of the Board to:

(a) Deny or revoke parole in any case in which application of the standards indicates that parole should be granted or continued; or

(b) Grant or continue parole in any case in which application of the standards indicates that parole should be denied or revoked,

↪ if the decision of the Board is otherwise authorized by the provisions of chapter 213 of NRS.

2. The Board may deviate from the standards contained in NAC ~~[213.510 to 213.550,]~~ 213.550 and sections 6 to 9, inclusive, of this regulation based upon ~~the~~:

~~—(a) The seriousness of the offense committed by the convicted person;~~

~~—(b) The prior record of criminal activity of the convicted person or the absence of such a record;~~

~~—(c) The conduct of the convicted person during his imprisonment;~~

~~—(d) Recommendations received by the Board from the judge before whom the convicted person was convicted, the prosecuting attorney, a law enforcement agency, the victim, any officer or employee of the Department of Corrections who is familiar with the convicted person or any other person who has an interest in the proceedings;~~

~~—(e) The history of supervision of the convicted person;~~

~~—(f) The factors involved in the offense committed by the convicted person, including, without limitation, the use of a weapon or the infliction of any injury or financial loss to a victim;~~

~~—(g) The failure of the convicted person to attain certification by a psychological screening panel;~~

~~—(h) The need for further evaluation of the convicted person;~~

~~—(i) The opinion of the Board that continued confinement of the convicted person is necessary to protect the public from further criminal activity by the convicted person;~~
~~—(j) Participation by the convicted person in positive programming during his imprisonment;~~
~~—(k) The existence of stable release plans for the convicted person;~~
~~—(l) The youth of the convicted person if he does not have a prior record of criminal activity as a juvenile;~~
~~—(m) Parole of the convicted person to another jurisdiction for prosecution or deportation; or~~

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTIONS

213.510 Considerations regarding granting of parole: Severity of crime. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140)

1. In determining whether to grant parole to a convicted person, the Board will consider the severity of the crime for which the conviction was had.
2. If a person has been convicted of more than one crime, the Board will consider the severity of his most serious crime.
3. For the purposes of this section, the Board may use the following table to assist it in determining the severity of a crime:

A1 A crime classified as a category A felony pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, with eligibility for parole beginning when a minimum of 20 years has been served

A2 A crime classified as a category A felony pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, with eligibility for parole beginning when a minimum of 15 years has been served

A3 A crime classified as a category A felony pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, with eligibility for parole beginning when a minimum of 10 years has been served

A4 A crime classified as a category A felony pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, with eligibility for parole beginning when a minimum of 5 years has been served

B1A crime classified as a category B felony pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, for which the maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed is 20 years

B2A crime classified as a category B felony pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, for which the maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed is 15 years

B3A crime classified as a category B felony pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, for which the maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed is 10 years

B4A crime classified as a category B felony pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130, for which the maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed is 6 years

C A crime classified as a category C felony pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130

D A crime classified as a category D felony pursuant to paragraph (d) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130

E A crime classified as a category E felony pursuant to paragraph (e) of subsection 2 of NRS 193.130

213.520 Considerations regarding granting of parole: Probability of successful completion. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140) In determining whether to grant parole to a convicted person, the Board may consider the probability that he will complete parole successfully. In assessing that probability, the Board may consider, without limitation, the following standards:

1. The number of prior convictions sustained by the person, both as a juvenile and as an adult;
2. The number of prior criminal charges brought against the person, including any charge dismissed as the result of a plea negotiation;
3. The number of occasions, including the present offense, on which the person has been incarcerated;
4. Any previous failure by the person to complete probation or parole;
5. Whether the person has a history of drug or alcohol abuse;
6. Whether the person was a full-time student, was receiving disability benefits from the Social Security Administration, was receiving workers' compensation or was fully employed, for at least 6 months during the year preceding the present offense;
7. The extent of injury or loss suffered by the victim of the present offense;

8. Whether a weapon was used, threatened to be used, displayed or possessed in the commission of the present offense;
9. The number of times disciplinary action was taken against the person while incarcerated and the nature and circumstances of each infraction for which disciplinary action was taken;
10. The nature and duration of any educational, occupational or other programming successfully completed by the person while incarcerated;
11. The length of time the person has been incarcerated for the present offense;
12. Whether the present offense was a sexual offense involving the use or threatened use of force or violence; and
13. Any other factors that indicate whether the person poses a threat to society or to himself.

213.530 Considerations regarding granting of parole: Minimum periods of imprisonment. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140) Giving consideration to the severity of the crime for which a person has been convicted and the probability that he will complete parole successfully, the Board may grant parole to the convicted person after he has served the period of imprisonment set forth in the following table:

Excellent	Good	Average	Poor	Very Poor
0-10	11-20	21-30	31-40	41+

213.540 Considerations regarding granting of parole: Requests for recomputation.

(NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140)

1. Any convicted person who believes that the Board has:

- (a) Miscalculated the severity of the crime for which he was convicted; or
- (b) Misapplied any factor set forth in NAC 213.520,

➡ may submit a request for recomputation to the Board.

2. A request submitted pursuant to this section must be sent to the Board within 30 days after its hearing of the matter. The request must be sent to: State Board of Parole Commissioners, 1445 Hot Springs Road, Suite 108 B, Carson City, Nevada 89711.
